THE STUDENT COUNCIL

See those little red tuberculosis spangles on everybody's coat at Christmas? The Student Council is responsible for those as it continues in its eighth year. And what about the fine assembly programs we've had during the term? There again we find the Student Council.

The Student Council promotes athletics and also sponsors the various "drives" of the year. The war against Infantile Paralysis and Tuberculosis is outstanding among its activities.

Being a democratic body, the members are chosen by the popular vote of the students. Led in its various activities by President Kenneth Brown and Vice President Wallie Gene White, while Helen Loper keeps the minutes and funds, the Student Council serves the school wisely and well.

We owe much to our wise and faithful counsellor, Miss Bertha Hunt.

SAFETY PATROL

"Boy, you know why you're in here?" Ask a few of our students where they've heard that sentence before, and see what they tell you!

Seriously, through—the Safety Patrol this year has been striving to make our school a better place in which to live. Many a time we've had unpleasant duties to perform—but we've had the cooperation of the student body behind us.

With Gerald Patesel as Captain and Ken Brown as Lieutenant, the Safety Patrol, composed of twenty-one members chosen from the Junior and Senior classes, has had as its goal the promotion of safety in school and on the buses.

Operating for the good of all, the Safety Patrol is the "Voice of Safety" on the campus. Our sponsor and helper is Mrs. Louise Brown.

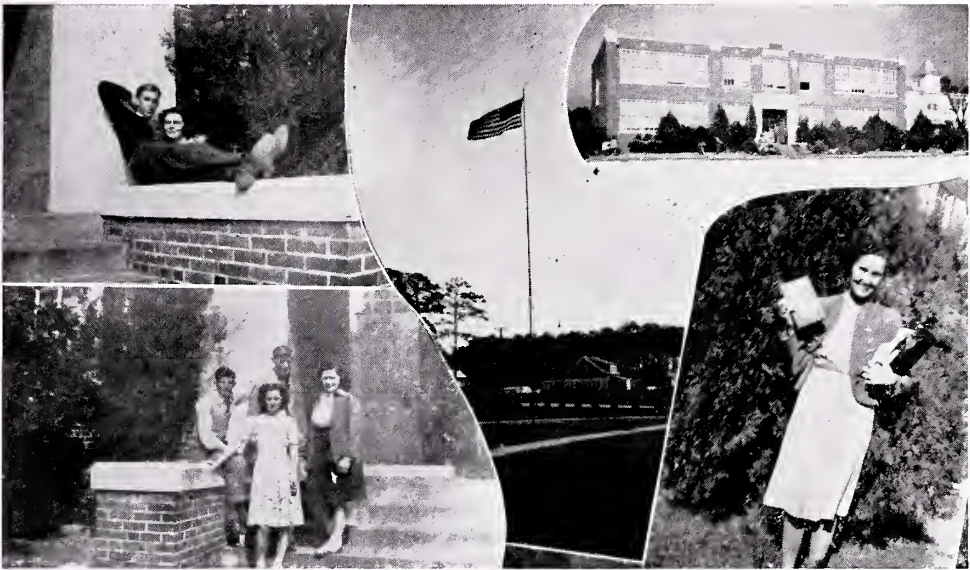

Principal's Message

Our country is now engaged in the greatest struggle of its existence. The purpose of this struggle is to achieve victory, and after victory construct a world of peace and security.

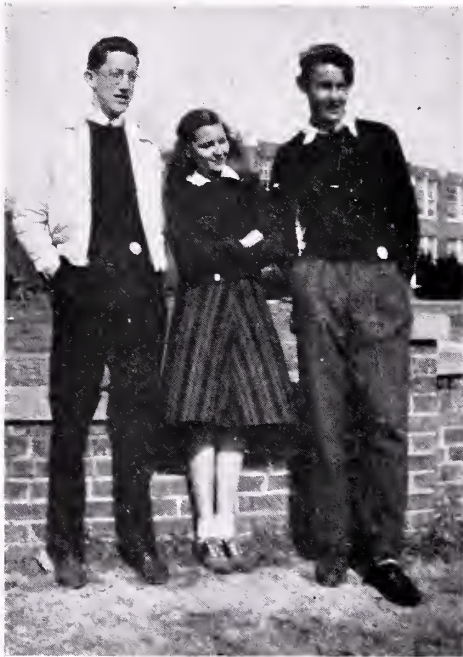

In order to accomplish these objectives, everyone, whether he is on the home front or the battle front, will have to do his utmost. I expect each of you to assume your obligation in bringing about these achievements.

HISTORY CLASS OF '43

Eighty-one of us, eager to enter upon our high school career, timidly, yet with all the "confidence" of Freshmen, entered our "door of higher learning" on September 7, 1939. How well we remember that day! We knew——

That first year we learned that friendships formed in high school are lasting and valuable. And we learned another lesson—a real one—namely, that we didn't know so much as we thought we did!

Ah, memories! How well we recall the day we discovered that we didn't even know how to walk in the halls! And who did those upper-classmen think they were. Just wait until next year.

Jane Maare, as President, with the help of Vice-President Olive Mills, Secretary, Frank Lee Forrest, and Treasurer, Audrey Forrest led us through that first year wisely and well.

And then, on September 5, 1940, we were Sophomores—sixty-six of us. We were worldly—wise—and important. Led by Henry Gary Bradshaw, President, Jerry Freeman, Vice-President, and William Alfred Carmine, Secretary-Treasurer, that year was full of interesting events. We, as Sophomores, were privileged to engage in more extra-curricular activities, and the prospect of being Juniors in a little while loomed big and bright.

September 4, 1941 was a big day in the lives of 57 people as we "Juniors", proud as peacocks, strutted boldly back and forth, knowing that the Seniors didn't have much on us. Our only regret was that some of "our Gang" had dropped from our number since we started together in '39. Yet, something new had been added. This year our leaders were Joseph Messick, Nell Clarke, Vice-President, and Jerry Freeman, Secretary-Treasurer.

At last! September 10, 1942. Could it be possible? SENIORS!! Boy! What envious glances those little Freshmen were giving us. How well we could remember the time when we were in their shoes.

This last year has been interesting—and fun. Oh, of course we've wished a thousand times that it would soon be over and we'd be graduates—but honestly, now that we are near its close, we hate to say "goodbye".

There are so many memories. That first day we were honored by hearing Mr. Thomas say at the close of Assembly, "The Seniors will leave first". And the day we ordered class rings and colling cords, and selected invitations.

Ups and downs—We've had 'em this year—but we've come through 46 strong, having started out with 50. We regret the loss of Mary Wade, Ashley Eledge, John Lemuel Forrest, and Ethel Mae Brown, who left us during the year.

As we, the graduating class of '43, go out these walls into a world at war, we trust that we shall take with us the armor which we have molded for ourselves here at P. H. S. We do not say "goodbye" as we leave now, but "au Revoir", realizing that our lives here shall ever be an open book.

C. A. TURNER, III

ANNUAL STAFF

"I Pledge Allegiance . . .—"

Did someone say that it took co-operation and work? But it was fun, all the way through—getting ads, collecting and assembling material—all of it. And we learned that anything worthwhile is worth "fighting" for.!

We feel that in this world of today allegiance is very much in order, and certainly it is due those of you to whom we present this book. So, it is with humility and pride that we submit for your enjoyment our efforts, with the sincere hope that you will find as much joy in turning these pages as we found in compiling them . . .

DRAMATICS CLUB

"All The World's A Stage"—Shakespeare

The curtain rises—all is peace and expectation in the audience. But all is not peace and quiet behind scenes! What if the performance is not successful? What if our efforts fail?

"Lights, camera, action!" And the curtain rises on Act I. The performance goes smoothly in spite of our fears!

Act II.—and we're holding our breath! But why? All's well when the curtain falls again.

Act III.—What if we do leave out a few lines? Everybody's happy when the curtain drops on the last scene!

And this ends a typical Dramatics Club play. "A Ready-Made Family" was no exception—and did we have fun producing it!!

Leaders Wallie Gent White, Charline Forrest, Olive Mills—with the splendid co-operation of the entire Dramatic Class and our Sponsors, Miss Richardson, have been loyal and true.

We hope that Shakespeare would at least smile a little upon us if he could occupy an "orchestra" seat at one of our performances.

Wall: Gene White, Ilive Mills, Ella Moore, Kenneth Brown, Vista Freeman, Ray Rollins, Charline Forrest, Ben Quinn, Betty Amory, Nell Clarke.

A READY-MADE FAMILY

Henry Turner—"Papa Turner" to diabolical little Cracie—is in a jam! And "Mama Agnes" isn't much better off! How can they enjoy their venture upon the sea of matrimony with pranking stepchildren interfering to break up the match? And then there's always Aunt Lydia!

Neurosis, baby prattle, tricks, fits—how will Henry ever survive it! But he does, and nothing daunts the wedded bliss of him and his beloved Agnes.

With the last curtain comes applause—and happily so—for the splendid cast of "A Ready-Made Family", presented by the members of the 1943 Dramatics Class.

FIRST ROW: Miss O'Hara, Ben Quinn, Jimmie Lee Broy, Mory Jack Evans, Margaret Lee Insley, Beulah Carmines, Lelia Carmines, Dalares Hagg, Edythe Ritter, Bethany Farrest, Carrie Forrest, Nell Clarke, Jack Farrest, Gerald Smaat.

THIRD ROW: Lois Spence, Pauline Farrest, Jeannie Raakstool, Eugene Hunt, Doris Harrell, Ray Rollins.

GLEE CLUBS

"Louder—Softer—Sh-h—"

For days 'n days before Christmas Glee Club "angels" were flitting around from hall to auditorium—followed by Miss O'Hara and Mr. Thomas. Purpose?—Why, observing Fathers' Night, of course! The program was a success.

We couldn't afford not to strike a patriotic note, however. So——result? An entertainment at Fortress Monroe. And did the boys like it?

The two Glee Clubs have worked together "harmoniously" with Presidents Ray Rollins and Beulah Carmines.

FIRST ROW: Norma Maare, Margaret Lee Insley, Mrs. Freeman, Charline Farrest, Elaine Rabertsan.
SECOND ROW: Irene Taylor, Olive Mills, Clemmie Allgood, Vista Freeman, Julia Spencer, Frances Burcher, Edith Insley, Pauline Farrest.
THIRD ROW: Sherman Baker, Ella Maare, Harry Lee Hallaway, Esther Faye Huggett, Nell Clarke, Ruth Hopkins
FOURTH ROW: Joe Messick, Jerry Freeman, Frank Lee Forrest, Gerald Patsel, Rosemillia Rabertsan, Daris Maare.
FIFTH ROW: Billy Childrey, Roland Robertson, Elbert Keziah, Clyde Maare, C. A. Turner, Garland Iran-manger, Cecil Maare, Louise Evans.

LINCOLN CLUBS

"Whatever sholl appear to be God's will, I shall do."—Lincoln

We "worked our tongues out"; we sweated and struggled; we blamed our "O's" on a million things—but we had fun in our club meetings, at which time we managed to get as far away from "history in the rough" as possible! However, we stuck to "Lincoln"—you bet! And, led by such capable members as Olive Mills and Jerry Freeman, our Presidents, and Mrs. Freeman, our Sponsor, we feel that we have accomplished much through our organization.

FIRST ROW: Beuloh Carmines, Normo Moore, Charline Forrest, Miss Catherine Richardson, Margaret Lee Insley, Elaine Robertson, Mary Jack Evans.
 SECOND ROW—Irene Taylor, Olive Mills, Clemmie Allgood, Vista Freeman, Frances Burcher, Saro Margaret Cormines, Pauline Forrest
 THIRD ROW: Jerry Freeman, C. A. Turner, Sherman Baker, Esther Foye Huggett, Joseph Messick, Harry Lee Holloway, Rosemilla Cormines, Nell Clarke, Anabelle Lonohon, Edith Insley, Ruth Hopkins, Louise Evans.
 FOURTH ROW: Wallie Gene White, Bermade Evons, Fronk Lee Forrest, James Harrell.

TERMITE CLUB

"To Bore or Not to Bore"

A little "boring", English Grammar—there is no doubt about it! So, under the Sponsorship of Miss Richardson, we decided to organize ourselves as a club, bearing the dignified name of "TERMITES".

But our club meetings haven't been "boring"—no, sir! We've learned through these the many hidden talents of most of the "TERMITES"—and we've improved our ability to face an audience, too.

Led by Ken Brown, Harry Lee Holloway, Nell Clarke, and Joe Messick, we've come through an interesting year together.

FIRST ROW: Jimmie Broy, Daris Taylor, Mary Carmines, Nell Carmines, Irene Poge, Jeon Bunting, Normo Hudson, Delores Hogge, Kathryn Farrel, Mrs. Moore.
SECOND ROW: Harry Lee Holloway, Jerry Freeman, Cecil Moore, Virginia Jewell, Ray Carmines, Sue Chubbick, Dorothy Ferguson, Annabelle Lanahan.

LATIN CLUBS

"Deus Est in Nobis"

If only Julius Caesar and the other illustrious Romans could see us now! Even Shakespeare could not improve upon our version of things!

Many a time we've been reluctant to enter the door to Latin class, but after all it's been worthwhile—and we feel that we've been loyal Romans, with every right to wear the "toga".

Through our club meetings, under the leadership of Consuls Wallie Gene White and Herbert Morse, and our Sponsor, Miss Richardson, we feel that we have come a long way toward a deeper appreciation of "the grandeur that was Rome", for in these meetings our purpose has been to learn something of the life of the people whose language we study from day to day.

PHI SIGMA CHI

"We seek to build a better world"

Out of the ruin and desolation of the war will rise a better world for which men and women are giving their lives. The world of science and invention is at hand. Through our organization we strive to learn those things which will enable us to better adapt ourselves for the life ahead.

The leaders of the "PHI SIGMA CHI" are: Mr. Nichols, sponsor; Clemmie Allgood, President; Jimmie Lee Bray, Vice-President; Virginia Jewell, Secretary-Treasurer.

Let us hope and strive for a better tomorrow!

HOME ECONOMICS CLUBS

"A stitch in time saves nine"

We girls have been kept pretty busy this year, and happily so! Sewing in cooperation with the Junior Red Cross for the nearby Service Men has been a privilege, and we've enjoyed it.

Then, our discussions on improved recreational facilities in the community may in time bear fruit too—we hope!

Under the splendid leadership of our sponsor, Miss Louise Baird, and our officers, Anna Lou Johnson, Olive Mills, Audrey Winters, and Bethany Forrest, we, in our Home Ec. B. Y. CLUB

"Victory . . . —"

Inspired by a love for humanity—especially those suffering from the horrors of war—and because of a desire to see liberty, freedom, and democracy continue, the B. Y. Club was organized so that we could do our little bit toward victory.

Through our meager efforts two Chinese Children have been fed and clothed for a year, and we are proud of our work. With leaders like Elsie White, Jimmie Lee Bray, Miss Elizabeth Cutler and Mrs. R. E. Hunt to spur us on, we feel that we have done something toward the victory of the UNITED NATIONS.

VICTORY CLUB

"Victory Bound"

From Chaucer to Shakespeare—from Shakespeare to Masfield—yes, the Victory Club is hard at work again, under the leadership of Mrs. Hunt, our Sponsor. We've met Beowulf and Macbeth, Milton and Johnson, and loved them all. Not only do we have a more thorough knowledge of English Literature as a result of this club, but our dues are sent to China Relief to help support our "adopted" Chinese boy and girl.

Led by President Garland Forrest and Vice-President Clyde Russell Smith, while Lucille Bradshaw keeps the records and Robert Floyd Holloway counts the money—we are "Victory Bound."

FIRST ROW: Rose Morie Cormines, Dale Forrest, Lucille Bradshaw, Mory Avis Rollins, Grace Thomas, Janet Weston, Mrs. Freeman.
 SECOND ROW: Nell Cormines, Ann Forrest, Corrie Firth, Irene Page, Marion Butler, Doris Wood, Peggy Dye.
 THIRD ROW: Goldie Powell, Dolly Messick, Nancy Huggett, Anna Lou Johnson, Delio Watkins, Betty Amory, Coretto Moore, Audrey Wood.

INDEPENDENCE CLUB

"Keep Democracy Shining"

Yesterday—today—and tomorrow! What a world of changes and surprises—and hopes—for the infants of democracy!

We've waded through countless pages of textbooks for our answer, but to us the call comes clearest through our fellow classmates. So we have been bound together as a History III Club for a whole school year now, under the guidance of our loyal Sponsor, Mrs. Freeman, our President, Charles Meadows, our Vice-President, John Thomas Firth, our Secretary, Nancy Huggett, and our Treasurer, Lucille Bradshaw.

Bearing before us our ideal of democracy, we look not just behind us, but ahead of us to a better tomorrow.

 SECOND ROW: Edward Moore, Kirby Smith, Louise Evans, Doris Taylor, Dorothy Ferguson.
 THIRD ROW: Clarence Wood, Jack Forrest.
 FOURTH ROW: Howard Forrest, Robert Holloway, Thomas Costellow, Allen Fox.
 FIFTH ROW: Wollie Gene White, Ben Quinn, Ray Rollins, Bernard Evons, Rolond Rollins, Billy Childrey, Melvin Watkins.

INCENDIARY CLUB

"Once we drop in, you can't put us out"

What does the future hold? The struggles of the past coupled with the present and future give us an incentive for tackling the great task of trying to understand America's problems throughout the year.

The Incendiary Club, under the leadership of President Wallie Gene White, Vice-President Ray Rollins, Secretary Virginia Jewell, Treasurer Mary Jack Evans, and our Sponsor, Mrs. Nannie Freeman, has attempted to acquaint its members with the problems of our forefathers and the consequent tasks of their children.

FIRST ROW: Mary Anne Adams, Bethany Farrest, Carrie Forrest, Mary Basta, Janice Hostetter, Mrs. Brown, Verdi Farrest.
 SECOND ROW: Maxine Hunt, Etta Buttler, Sally Hunt, Betty Milla Cox, Carrie Belle Crockett Lelio Cormines Katherine Huggett, Clayton Nelson, Ester Mae Bunting, Ethel Mae Spence.
 THIRD ROW: Haward Wise, Charles Mockey, Ruth Teague, Jeannine Rookstool, Noro Jackson, John Insley, Carlisle Moore, Glorio Williams, Pauline Moore, Audrey Winters.

"We strive to follow our heroes"

"We live to learn," as has been wisely stated, so our History and English II Class, under the leadership of our Sponsor, Mrs. Louise Brown, decided to abandon books twice a month and follow this advice!

Socrates, Aristotle, and others have suffered no end under our expert examinations of them, but we have come out none the worse with such leaders as Ethel Spence, Helen Loper, Lelia Carmines, and Clayton Nelson!

"We strive to follow our heroes" is our Motto, so, like the ancient stoics, we smile, determined to "Grin and bear it."

FIRST ROW: Soroh Martin, Genevo McPherson, Mrs. Brown, Eugenia Shakleford, Dolores Hogge, Jeon Eugene Hunt.
 THIRD ROW: Kothryn Forrell, Lee Corbett, Robert Hording, Burdell Bunting, Herbert Morse, Lois Spence.
 FIFTH ROW: Leon Blunt, John Ferguson, Colden Pools, Thomas Farrest, Robert Rollins, Eugene Moore, Eugene Hunt.

SOPHOMORE CIVIC CLUB

"Conquer We Must"

"Conquer we must"—and Youth must do its share! We, as young citizens of America, must "carry on" a job now being "well done".

Through organization we feel stronger; therefore, the fifth and sixth period history and English class, with Mrs. Louise Brown as Sponsor formed this year a "Sophomore Civic Club" in order to foster among ourselves a deeper appreciation of the world situation today.

President Hebert Morse, Vice-President Jean Bunting, Secretary Irene Page, and Treasurer Junior Page have led us wisely and well.

FIRST ROW: Miss O'Hara, Jan'ce Hostettar, Pauline Moore, Lelia Carmines, Bethony Forrest, Verdie Forrest.
 SECOND ROW: Ruth Ellege, Lillian Gibbs, Glaria Williams, Catherine Huggett, Esther Bunting, Ethel Spence.
 THIRD ROW: Burdeil Bunting, George Pauls, Richard Diggs, Raymond Moore, Clyde Russell Smith.

G. M. C.

"Methods of Music"

Beethoven, Bach—all the masters—how can we better appreciate them? In class, yes—and yet, why not organize for that purpose? Thus ran our discussion. Result?—the General Music Club, under the leadership of Miss Edna O'Hara, our music teacher.

We had to have leaders in this understanding, so we chose Wayne Campbell for President, Lelia Carmines for Vice-President, Katherine Huggett for Secretary and John Thomas Firth for Treasurer.

"Music hath charms"—and we have found this to be true through our organization for a better understanding of what music is.

UNCLE SAM'S HELPERS

"Stamp The Axis With Stamps"

"Any bonds today?" And Uncle Sam's helpers are on the go. When a Freshman said one day, "Let's stamp the Axis with stamps", we decided to make a club of the idea, with the help of Miss Lewis, our Sponsor. So every time we lick a stamp, we feel a certain pride in helping to lick the Axis! We're Uncle Sam's Helpers—we Freshman History and English patriots. All patriots must have leaders—and we are satisfied with Cecil Moore, Mary Pearl Joyner, Emma Louise Freeman, and Eva Lee Owens as ours.

So——on to Victory——with bonds and stamps!

FIRST ROW—Irene Toyler, Normo Moore, Charlie Forrest, Miss Richardson, Eloine Robertson, Vista Freeman.
SECOND ROW—Julio Spencer, Doris Moore, Ello Moore, Frank Lee Forrest, Edith Insley, Ester Foye Hugget, Gerold Smoot.
THIRD ROW—Rolond Rollins, Gorlond Ironmonger, Gerold Potesel, Clyde Moore, Elbert Kozioh, Billy Childrey, Cecil Moore.

SHASTA CLUB

"To err is humon; to forgive is divine."

A secret—our name—but our aim is no secret. We organized for the purpose of improving our ability to face our fellow-students with something worthwhile to pay to them. Being an organization grown out of American Literature, we set as our goal a better appreciation of our American writers and speakers.

Our leaders in this undertaking have been Elbert Keziah, President, Charline Forrest, Vice-President, Irene Taylor, Secretary, Frank Lee Forrest, Treasurer, and Miss Catherine Richardson, Sponsor.

 SECOND ROW: Junior Pace, Mary Card, Doris Harrell, Frances Mills, Raymond Hallaway, Gerald Smaat.
 THIRD ROW: Billy Rollins, Gene Rollins, Sara Margaret, Carmines, Gracie Mae Forrest, Syphon Crockett,
 FOURTH ROW: David Moore, Henry Forrest, Betty Belvin, M. J. Firman, Robert Riley.

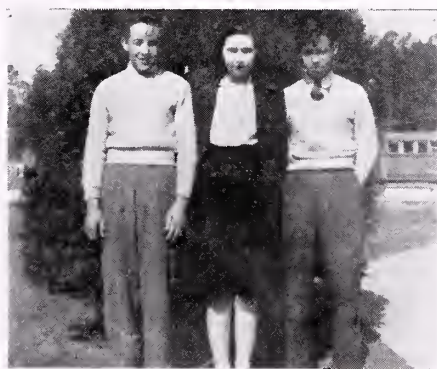

GOOD CONDUCT CLUB

"By Way of Example"

In November our History III Class decided to organize itself into a club for the purpose of working and learning together with a spirit of cooperation and good will. We felt that as an organization we might better appreciate our opportunity for living together as a group of students who are all interested in the same things.

In our meetings it has been our aim to study our heroes of the past and present, and to further in ourselves the rules for good conduct which they set forth.

Under the guidance of Richard Diggs, President, Gene Rollins, Vice-President, Frances Mills, Secretary-Treasurer, and Mrs. Nannie Freeman, Sponsor, we feel that we have accomplished much during this year.

FIRST ROW—Donald Bryant, Roymond Crow, Joe Smith, Hunter Riggins, Gordon Page.
 SECOND ROW—Rose Moe Wilson, Beulah Moore, June Elkins, Clo Blower, Ido Rose Topping, Sue Firth, Maryollene Firth, Eller Holloway, Miss Richardson.
 THIRD ROW—Jeanette Honsford, Kothline Moore, Virginio Pascoll, Hesta Mortin, Joyce Word, Mortho Freeman, Jackie Hunt, Jackie Soence, Doris Elliott.
 FOURTH ROW—Billy Forrest, Horoce Wilson, Cornell Burcher, Hunter Chalkey, John Hudgins, Benson Johnson, Eugene Bunting, Jerry Bunting, Bobby Williams.

ADVENTURES IN LANGUAGE CLUB

"To speak—and to speak well"

We studied them all—the ways of people from almost every country, including our own. All that was fun, but it was much more fun to suspend class activities one day every other week and have a club program!

We have truly tried to learn "to speak—and to speak well" this year, and we feel that we have made some progress, at least, under the leadership of Jerry Bunting, Hunter Riggins, Jr., Virginia Pascall, and Mrs. Moore, our Sponsor.

Sports

"All work and no play"

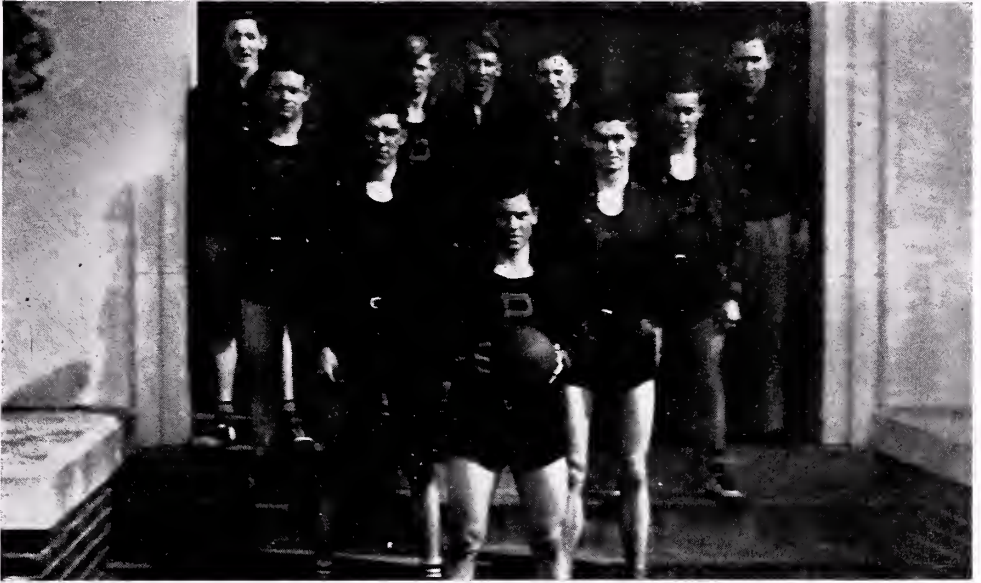

FRONT ROW: Ray Rollins, M. J. Firmon, Leon Blunt, Jerry Freeman, Bernard Evans, Ben Quinn, Kenneth Brown.

Because of existing conditions, no games were scheduled for the girls' basketball team this year; however, we feel that the team deserves recognition and has a place here. Several class games have been played, and the team has kept in form through these. We hope for a better year.
